A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the latest chapter in the North Central Michigan College story—a story that began more than 65 years ago and continues today. We are the community’s college, improving learners’ lives and strengthening our host communities where many alumni reside.

To craft this next chapter, North Central has completed a strategic planning process that supports fulfillment of our Mission and achievement of our Vision. These strategic planning efforts were designed to effectively support a process of continuous improvement and to involve all of our stakeholders, including students, staff, faculty, administration, advisory boards, the Board of Trustees, and our greater community. I thank all who have participated in this process.

The resulting Thrive 2035 Strategic Plan will guide overall operations in the years ahead, ensuring that institutional resources are focused on the achievement of a set of strategic aims. To enable continuous improvement, we must adapt to changing environmental conditions. Thus, the plan has been designed as a living document. It will be assessed annually, with minor adjustments made as needed.

To learn more about the plan, I invite you to review this brochure. Read even more about it by downloading the full Thrive 2035 Strategic Plan online at www.ncmich.edu/thrive.

Thank you for the role you play in writing our next chapter!

David Roland Finley, Ph.D.

THE STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

2019-20
North Central Michigan College embarked on a process to create a strategic plan to advance its mission and vision for the next 15 years. This effort began with the formulation of a Strategic Planning Action Committee (SPAT) comprised of members representing a broad array of college divisions/departments.

Input was received from community members, board members, donors, alumni and all current college employees through surveys, workshops and meetings.

The SPAT committee’s work began with the creation of a new College mission, vision and values and culminated in the formation of Thrive 2035 implemented in the 2021-22 fiscal year.

2021-22 and beyond
In order to remain viable and effective, Thrive 2035 was updated and adjusted to reflect the changing community college environment and meet the changing demands of the global, digital, knowledge economy that has accelerated since the COVID-19 pandemic. This resulted in a more actionable vision, refocused priorities and a streamlined plan with even more targeted deliverables.
PLAN IMPLEMENTATION

The college’s vision, mission and values drive the Strategic Plan. The Environmental Scan and SWOT Analysis set the stage by depicting the current external and internal environments under which the plan was developed. The College’s Master Plan is a key element in aligning our strategic agenda with our programs and facilities. This knowledge informs the annual planning process.

Each year, progress on KPIs is measured for that year and reported to college stakeholders. New divisional/departmental objectives are then created with updated KPIs, which are implemented through the next year. Again, progress is measured, and the process is repeated through the plan life cycle.
Thanks to the contributions of hundreds of college stakeholders, including employees, community members, donors, students and alumni, Thrive 2035 will allow North Central will reach even higher in service to our students and Northern Michigan. This collective effort will sharpen our relevance and enhance our ability to meet the needs of a dynamic student population and a region that relies on the strength of its community college.
